Brown Rudnick's Bankruptcy & Corporate Restructuring Group Named Top US Legal Advisor by *The Hedge Fund Journal

Boston, MA, September 19, 2008 – Yesterday, the publishers of The Hedge Fund Journal recognized the international law firm of Brown Rudnick as a top legal advisor to the US hedge fund community. The award specifically acknowledges the work of Brown Rudnick's Bankruptcy & Corporate Restructuring Group, which is nationally-renowned for its representation of high-yield investors and fund managers in connection with major bankruptcy reorganizations. The award was presented last night at a champagne reception at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in New York.

Since the 1980s, Brown Rudnick has successfully represented more official and ad hoc committees, general unsecured creditors, and equity holders in larger, more complex cases, with better results than virtually any other firm in the U.S. The Firm has been involved in such significant Chapter 11 cases such as Mirant Corporation, Calpine Corporation, Metabolife International, Inc., Global Crossing, Adelphia Communications and MCI/WorldCom, as well as involvement in European credits such as Eurotunnel SA/PLC, Teksid S.p.A., Schefenacker AG, Cheyne Finance, and Northern Rock PLC, and with distressed and second-lien acquisition and trading for some of the largest players in the sub- and distressed debt trading markets.
