Brown Rudnick Attorney David A. Bright Named Member of the Belmont Hill School Corporation

Boston, MA, April 30, 2007 -- Brown Rudnick, a premier international law firm, today announced that David A. Bright, an attorney in the firm's Real Estate Group, has been named a member of the Belmont Hill School Corporation. A 1983 alumnus of Belmont Hill School, Mr. Bright was unanimously voted to the membership during the corporation's Annual Meeting on April 25, 2007. As a member, Mr. Bright will act as a class representative, helping to advance the mission of the school through fundraising, student advocacy, event planning and other activities.

Founded in 1923, Belmont Hill School is an all-boys preparatory school located on a 23 acre campus in Belmont, Massachusetts. The school, which enrolls approximately 420 students in grades 7-12, aims to help boys develop in personal confidence, in their individual talents and passions and in an agile, informed engagement with their world.

Mr. Bright regularly represents national developers, investors, retailers and financial institutions in connection with acquisitions and dispositions, zoning and land use matters, development and permitting processes and financings. Mr. Bright focuses his practice on zoning and land use matters and has counseled large corporations and institutions in connection with obtaining the federal, state and local permits necessary to construct their projects. Mr. Bright's community involvement includes serving on the Board of Directors of the Lawyers Clearinghouse on Affordable Housing and Homelessness and the Board of Directors of the Brown Rudnick Charitable Foundation. Mr. Bright is also the Co-Founder and Co-Director of the African American Real Estate Professionals of New England.
