BROWN RUDNICK'S LONDON OFFICE CONTINUES EXPANSION WITH ADDITION OF PARTNER EDWARD SWAN, Ph.D.

Boston, U.S. and London, U.K., July 19, 2010 -- Brown Rudnick, an international law firm with offices in the US and UK, announces that Edward (Ned) Swan has joined the Firm's London office as a partner in the Finance Group. Formerly with Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, Dr. Swan is an accomplished attorney with over 30 years of experience practicing in the areas of UK, European, and US financial services law and regulation. He has a Ph.D. in Advanced Legal Studies from the University of London.

Dr. Swan's expertise spans authorization and compliance, structured finance, trading and clearing, commodities and energy, MiFID, ISDA, ISLA (and other standard form agreements) and funds. He advises national governments, regulators, exchanges, clearing houses, banks, investment funds, brokerage houses, trade associations, commodity traders and commodity producers on all aspects of financial services regulation, documentation and litigation in New York, London and Paris.

Announcing the new appointment today, Brown Rudnick CEO Joseph F. Ryan commented, "Ned's broad experience at a high level of practice and expertise in financial regulation matters will enhance our capabilities in the U.S. and European finance space and will be a valuable resource to fund clients."
