Brown Rudnick Represents Global Broadcasting LLC in Acquisition of WLNE-TV, the Rhode Island ABC Affiliate

Boston, MA, October 23, 2007 -- Brown Rudnick, a premier international law firm, represented Global Broadcasting LLC in its acquisition of WLNE-TV, the ABC affiliate that serves Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts. Global purchased the station from California-based Freedom Communications, Inc. for $14 million. The deal was announced in March 2007, and the Federal Communications Commission granted its approval in late September. The transaction closed on October 9, 2007.

In representing Global Broadcasting, Brown Rudnick brought to bear its 30 years of experience in the M&A market and in representing national and regional industry leaders in publishing and broadcasting. The Brown Rudnick legal team was led by Fred L. Levy and Catherine Gardner, both of whom are partners in the firm's Corporate Department and resident in the Washington office. Mr. Levy and Ms. Gardner assembled a cross-disciplinary team from across the firm's Providence, Boston, Hartford and Washington offices.

Global Broadcasting LLC is a Delaware corporation owned and operated by media veterans Kevin O'Brien and Robinson Ewert.
