STEVEN F. WASSERMAN ELECTED TO BROWN RUDNICK'S MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Boston, MA, May 30, 2007 – Brown Rudnick, a premier international law firm, today announced that Steven F. Wasserman, a partner in the Corporate & Securities Department in the New York office, has been elected by the firm's partners to the Management Committee. Mr. Wasserman joins fellow committee members CEO Joseph F. Ryan, London partner J. Scott Burns, Hartford partner Franca L. DeRosa, Boston partner Jeffrey L. Jonas, and New York partner Edward Weisfelner.

Mr. Wasserman, in addition to his new responsibilities, manages an active practice. He has extensive experience in the areas of distressed debt and claims trading, mergers and acquisitions, private and public securities offerings, including initial public offerings (representing both issuers and underwriters), SEC reporting matters and venture capital transactions. His clients include various hedge funds in their distressed bank debt trading activities as well as the New York and London distressed bank trading desks of a major investment bank.

Commenting on the election, Joseph F. Ryan, Brown Rudnick's CEO, said, "I am delighted to welcome Steve as a member of the Management Committee. His longtime commitment to the firm, along with his business acumen and leadership abilities, will help keep the firm on its continued path of growth and success."
